

SELECTED STUDENT ORAL HISTORY PROJECT TITLES

A Piercing Perspective: Body Piercing Culture from Past to Present
“Based on Bitterness:” Japanese-American Internment & the “No-No” Loyalty Oath Response
Cabin Pressure: The Unspoken Stress of the U.S. Flight Crew (oral history project on flight attendants)
Calling Australia Home: Children of Postwar Immigrants
Caught Between Cultures: The Paraguayan Immigrant Experience in Southern California
Crossing the Border: Documenting Border Life
Cultural Connections: The Ethnic Church as a Second Home for Asian Immigrants in North Texas
Displaced by Revolution: Persian Jewish Women Immigrants to Santa Clara County, California
Exploring the Education and Employment Experiences of Congolese Women from a Refugee Background Following Settlement in Regional Australia
Fighting Fire from the Air: The Contributions of California Aerial Firefighters
Fighting for a Country not Yet Your Own: An Oral History Project of U.S. Military Non-citizen Vietnam War Veterans
Finding Stories in Pine Ridge Landscapes: The Ikćé Wićáša Oral History Project (Ogala Lakota Archives, South Dakota)
From Misha to Mickey: Russians Immigrating to Central Florida
Gatekeeping Across Two Cultures: Raising Children in the USA by Mothers from Latin American Countries
He Ain’t Heavy, He’s My Brother”: Talking with Siblings of People with Disabilities
Las Vegas’ Black Broadcasters
Latino Asiático: Oral Narratives with Asian Latino Populations
Learn One, Do One, Teach One: The Macedonian Immigrant Community in Cincinnati
Learning Journeys: Oral Histories of International Students at CSUN
On the Front Lines of Fear: D.C. Health Care Providers in the Early Years of the AIDS Epidemic
Retelling Dance History: Stories from Artists in the Isadora Duncan Dance Community
Socialists of Color: San Francisco Bay Area Members of the League of Revolutionary Struggle Stories from the Home Front: Pittsburgh during World War II
Street Smart: The Backstory Behind a City’s Mural Policy
The American Dream: One Family’s Economic Story Through Four Generations.
The Cuban Experience: Documenting the Defining Experiences of the Cuban People
The Disappearance Thereof: Exploring the Effects on Gentrification and Lesbian Spaces and The White Horse Inn (Oakland, Calif.)
The Pajarito Plateau Development: A Pueblo Man’s Memories of Working on “The Hill.” (Los Alamos, NM)
The Refugee Crisis: One Community’s Response
The View from Here: How Palo Alto Students and Staff Responded to Historic Political and Cultural Events 1945 – Present
Under the Veil: Muslim American Women
Voices from the Valley: The Social Impact of the Creation of Beaver Lake on the Residents of the White River Valley in Northwest Arkansas”
We Are Still Here: Voices of the Alcatraz Occupation
We Will Not Yield: The Impact of HB 2 on the Rio Grande Valley (impact of 2013’s House Bill 2 (HB 2) on access to abortion for women of the Rio Grande Valley of South Texas)
Your Vote, Your Voice: An Oral History of Americans without Citizenship Status and the 2016 Presidential Election

